NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT

Thanks to all who supported our Mini-Auction last month. We raised $623. It takes a lot of volunteer effort. Thanks to Barbara Coleman, Fred Leeson, Ed & Sandra Martin, Joi & Paul Shervey, Neal Skibinski, Ginny David & me, Jan & Don Baxter, Mark Moore, Kate Fuller, Sandra Millius, Jack Bookwalter, Jean Zitzer, Mable Hardebeck and Carole Bess White.

Our largest donations were: 11 items from Iris Natividad and four Christmas cacti from Elmer Heffner. We regret the passing of Iris Natividad's longtime companion, Andrew Downer, who perished in the Paradise, California fire. He died while awaiting rescue because of his disability. Their home and all of their possessions were also lost. Iris survived because she was caring for her mom in a nursing home out of town.

This month is our last meeting of the year, so let's make it a great one. It's our annual Holiday Potluck, and we always have fun. We are thankful for friends and family who enrich our lives, and we are grateful for our many blessings.

See you at the potluck!

PROG President,
Randy David

CASTLETON'S DOLLY MADISON PATTERN WITH GINNY DAVID

Castleton China had many names over its long history. In 1901 it opened as New Castle China, then it acquired Shenango Pottery and used that name for several years. Castleton got its start when Mr. Louis Helleman, formerly a rep for Rosenthal China of Germany, contracted with Shenango China to make some of Rosenthal's shapes and pattern prior to WWII. The goal of the merger was to combine age-old European craftsmanship with superior American technology.

Castleton was incorporated in 1940. Shenango purchased the remaining stock of Castleton in 1951 and production continued until 1976. Fourteen different patterns were produced including commemorative Presidential plates at the request of Mamie Eisenhower and Lady Bird Johnson.

Ginny's parents had a complete set for twelve of the Dolly Madison pattern that was produced from 1950-1972. Pictured are a place setting and several serving pieces including the teapot, which is available on Replacements, Ltd. for $650!!! Wow, what a surprise!! She has complemented the china with her parents' Rogers gold-plated flatware, goblets with a rose and gold trim, and a Heisey New Era double candleholder that her mom usually used on the table.
