ALL MEMBERS WELCOME

President Message:

Here we are already into fall and the New Year is just around the corner. This month I have something fun to talk about, Proggie Froggie. You have all seen the Travelocity Gnome on TV, we'll we now have Proggie Froggie and you can have him for one month at a time. At the monthly club meeting we will auction off Proggie to the highest bidder. That person will keep Proggie for one month and take pictures of him as he travels with you and your glass. Pick your best picture and submit it to be published in the monthly newsletter. Proggie will be returned at the next monthly meeting and re-auctioned off to the highest bidder who will also take a picture to submit to the newsletter. At the end of one year the PROG members will vote on the best picture of Proggie that was published in the PROG newsletter. The winner will receive a one year PROG membership worth $30.00 dollars. Because we only have 11 meetings a year you only have 10 more chances of winning Proggie for a month because Jerry Linschoten was our first winner at the October meeting. I can't wait to see his pictures. If you can't attend the meeting but would like to bid on Proggie send me an email or call. I think we are going to have a lot of fun with Proggie in the future.

Happy Glass Hunting.

Ed Martin, President

WE ALL NEED TO EAT!

The need for food for those who can't afford to feed their families is ongoing, so we are again having our HOLIDAY FOOD DRIVE.

Please bring donations of food in cans or paper/cardboard packages (no glass or perishable items, please) to the December meeting. (Or to any meeting as Central Lutheran has a permanent food donation bin.)

THANK YOU!!

MEMBERSHIP

I would like to thank Dennis Headrick for his donating his time, talent, paper and printer ink for assembling the 2013-2014 Membership Booklets.

There was a little glitch and more are being printed and should be ready for the October General Meeting.

Thanks goes to Suzanne Lemon for helping me to get the Name Tag Boards reassembled for PROG's new year. Alone, it used to take me 3 days to reassemble the name tags. With Suzanne's help, it only took 5 hours. With 2-3 more people helping, it should be a breeze. The next time we need to do this (approx twice a year) I'll ask for more volunteers to help.

Do you know someone who has an interest in Antiques of any kind, please invite them to a PROG meeting and/or refer them to me.

GREENTOWN'S AUSTRIAN PATTERN

Jerry Linschoten

The short life of the Indiana Tumbler & Goblet Company of Greentown, Indiana, did not equate to a short list of items produced. In fact, the company produced more than 35 different patterns & pressed them in crystal and their other colors. Collectors call the output of this company "Greentown Glass."

Greentown produced the Austrian pattern, their first major tableware line from 1887 until the company closed in 1903, right in the heart of the Early American Pattern Glass era.

It was the time when cut glass was popular, and Austrian, also called Fine Cut Medallion, looks the most like cut glass of all Greentown's patterns. It is very robust glass, so it is less prone to damage. Though they made 35 Austrian items, oddly enough they did not make a cruet. It is Greentown's only pattern that includes children's items, and it is the only pattern to have a square salt shaker and sauce dish, rose bowls, three sizes of creamers, four sizes of sugars and three sizes of vases.

All of the Austrian pieces were made in crystal; most were made in canary (vaseline); two in cobalt blue and one in Nile green.

Austrian has never been reproduced, although a few patterns from other companies do resemble it.

BEST OPEN CANDY DISH—A TIE

Sandra Martin & Diane Foster

BEST LIDDED CANDY DISH

Richard Cox

JACK BOOKWALTER'S PRIZE-WINNING VELVEETA FUDGE

adapted from a recipe by Paula Deen

1/2 lb Velveeta Cheese, sliced
1 c butter
1 1/4 tsp pure vanilla extract

1 c chopped nuts—pecans or walnuts
16 oz confectioners' sugar
3/4 c cocoa powder

Lightly spray the bottom of a 9 x 12 pan with a nonstick spray.

In a saucepan over medium heat, melt the Velveeta and butter together until smooth, stirring constantly; remove from heat and stir in the vanilla and nuts.

In a large bowl, sift together the sugar and cocoa; pour the cheese mixture into the sugar mixture and stir until completely mixed. The candy will be very stiff.

Using your hands, remove candy from the bowl and press it evenly and firmly into the prepared pan. Pat the top of the candy with a paper towel to remove the excess oil.

Place the pan in the refrigerator until the candy is firm; to serve, cut the candy into squares.
